As we, the seniors, prepare to leave Northern Lebanon for college, jobs, and to serve our country, our high school years will eventually fade into a fond memory. We, as members of the Archive staff have attempted to record and recapture a few of the events gone by into a treasure chest of memories. It will be this treasure chest of the Archive that will recall for us those cherished days, friendships, and pleasant memories.

Dedication

The class of 1968 proudly dedicates the 18th edition of the Archive to Mrs. Patricia Bell. Mrs. Bell teaches shorthand and office practice and is the advisor of the Belron staff. Delightful is the word which best describes her as a teacher and as a friend to all of her students. She is always so eager to give of her time, yet she never asks anything in return. For her undying patience, sincere devotion, and familiar smile, we wish to give a small part of us for her to remember.

ADMINISTRATION

Mrs. Irma Schaeffer

Mrs. Lorraine Gingrich

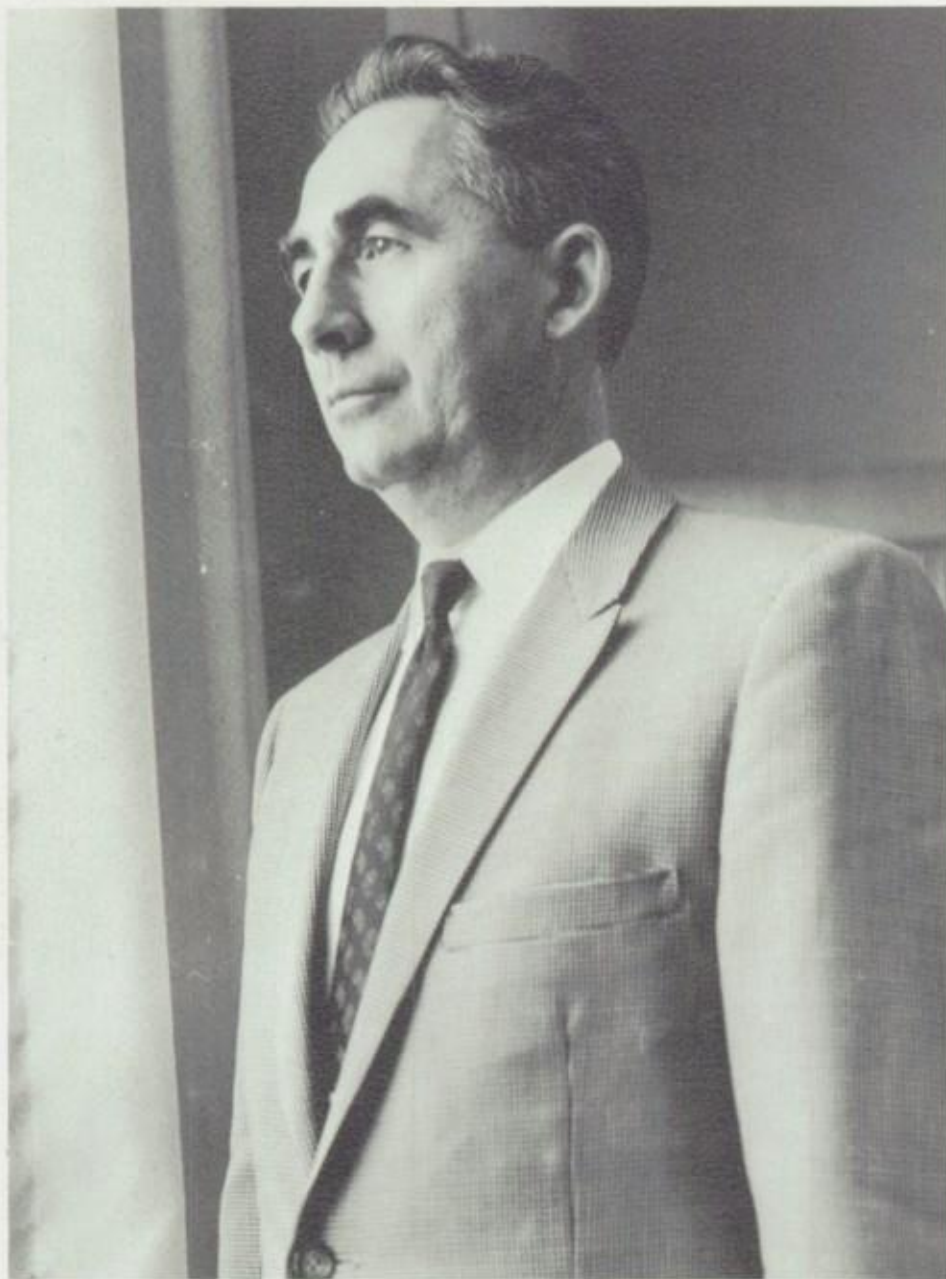

These are the golden days, the days spent in school. Lasting friendships are being made, plans for the future are being laid, ideals are taking shape. Cherish and savor them for they will soon be memories that can only be stored in the mind.

Your school has done its utmost to produce healthy, upright, clear-thinking young men and women who as citizens of their school, community, state, nation, and world will be willing to defend, maintain, and improve our American way of life. May you ever be willing to accept this challenge, and when later responsibilities come, be ready to accept them, thus bringing credit to yourself and honor to your school.

My congratulations and best wishes to each one of you.

Adam L. Snavely
Supervising Principal

To the Members of the Class of 1968:

You are about to set forth on a tremendous venture. As the date of commencement draws nigh, perhaps you will be awed with the realization that life for you will now become completely different. Close friendships will be broken, new goals must be set, significant responsibilities must be accepted, education of some kind must be continued, and a worthy contribution to society must be made.

Enter this new chapter of your life with enthusiasm, with the determination to succeed in your life's work, with an abiding concern for your fellowman, and with a deep devotion for your country.

Be alert. Be a builder for good. Beware of the doom peddlers. They have lost the faith in God and this nation. Their course leads to self-destruction.

As you view the American scene perhaps all you see is riots, crime, and poverty and war. That these problems exist is quite evident. That there is a continuing effort to eliminate these problems is a certainty. In the shadow of these problems have you noticed the shining accomplishments in science, medicine, education, and industry? Each year man has been able to achieve that which was seemingly impossible. Yes, there still are worlds to conquer.

Perhaps you cannot win world renown, but you can win the respect of your fellowman if you work diligently, inspire those about you, and make a worthy contribution to your community.

It is my sincere hope that you meet the challenges of life with confidence and that you will be rewarded with success and happiness.

AWAY

James Whitcomb Riley

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead. He is just away!

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,

And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.

And you--oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return--

Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;

.....

Think of him still as the same, I say;
He is not dead--he is just--away!

Alma Mater

1. Built along a busy highway
Is the school we all hold dear
Place which taught us well life's lessons
Not to falter, not to fear.

Chorus

- We are proud of Northern Lebanon
And our life's one aim will be
To hold high the Viking banner
Keeping faith and trust in thee.
2. We will always give allegiance
To the colors blue and gold
And look forward to the future
Unafraid, steadfast, and bold.
